

8th DRC (Danube Rectors' Conference) Summer School on Regional Co-operation
3-10 July 2011
Vienna, Austria

“EU Strategy for the Danube Region – Perspectives for the Future”

CALL FOR APPLICATION

Dear Colleagues,

The Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna,
IDResearch Ltd (IDR), Pécs
the Faculty of Humanities and Faculty of Business and Economics, University of Pécs and the BOKU University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna are organizing the eighth Summer School on Regional Co-operation under the intellectual sponsorship of the Danube Rectors' Conference
(<http://www.drcsummerschool.eu/>)

Aims of the project:

- to enhance awareness for the significance and possibilities of regional co-operation
- to discuss and develop strategies for the improvement of co-operation in the region
- to bring young scientists from countries of the Danube Region and Central Europe together to establish a regional scientific network within the European Research Area
- to foster relations between the partner universities of the Danube Rectors' Conference and with other regional actors
- to prepare a sustainable series of events to be able to meet the tasks mentioned above
- to promote the mobility of young scientists, especially in South East Europe

Initiators and main organisers:

Institute for the Danube Region and Central Europe (IDM), Vienna
Mag. Dr. Susan Milford, Managing Director

IDResearch Ltd. (IDR), Pécs
Dr. István Tarrósy, Managing Director

Co-organisers:

Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs
BOKU University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna

Target group:

- Max. 30 young scientists from the Danube Region and Central Europe who have records in Political Science or other social science disciplines
- Graduates who want to present their research projects to the students of the Summer School in the lectures
- Interested individuals from regional organisations, public administration and scientific institutions

Time frame and location:

The Summer School will take place between 3 – 10 July 2011 at BOKU, Vienna, Austria.

Workshop items:

1. Regional Cooperation along the Danube - Culture, Education, Science
2. History and Geopolitics in the Danube Region
3. Economy vs. Environment - Challenges along the Danube (Economic, social, infrastructure development)
4. Danube Strategy - How Much “Stronger Europe” Can Be?: New chances for regional cooperation and European Integration

Working methods:

- Lectures by high level scientists, young graduates and experts (politicians, civil servants, representatives of regional organisations, NGOs, EU officials)
- Presentation of Best Practice projects
- Presentation of papers prepared by the participants
- Discussion in parallel workshops
- Presentation of the results of each working group and plenary discussion

Working language is English.

The results of the Summer School will be published in a proceedings volume.

Applications:

Applications for participation may be handed in by e-mail or fax and should include the application which will be online on: <http://www.drcsummerschool.eu>, the CV of the applicant and an abstract max. 2 pages of the paper that shall be presented in the framework of the Summer School. The participants are selected by a jury taking into account the guidance of the presidency of the Danube Rectors’ Conference (DRC).

Details of application:

The registration fee of the Summer School is EUR 200.-, the contribution to the expenses for board and accommodation is EUR 230.-

The deadline for application is June 12, 2011, after the acceptance of your paper the registration and board and accommodation fees have to be paid by June 20, 2011. Please find more details on the application form.

Early Bird registration:

Starting this year, there is a possibility to register as an 'Early bird'. If you submit your paper and application form before March 20, 2011, you pay only half (50%) of the registration fee.

After the acceptance of your paper the registration (EUR 100.-) and board and accommodation fees have to be paid by March 31, 2011. Please find more details on application form etc. on drcsummerschool.eu/earlybird.

Applications should be sent to:

Mr. Zoltán Vörös
IDResearch Ltd.
Tel.: +36-30-709-7491
Fax: +36-72-522-624
E-mail: voros@idresearch.hu
www.drcsummerschool.eu

Programme (6 working days):

Sun, 3 July	Arrival, Afternoon Programme, First Meeting
Mon, 4 July	Opening Session, Presentation of last year's Proceeding Volume, Keynote Addresses, Introduction to the Workshops
Tue, 5 July	Plenary Lectures, Workshops
Wed, 6 July	Social Programme
Thu, 7 July	Plenary Lectures, Workshops
Fri, 8 July	Field Trip
Sat, 9 July	Presentation of the Workshop Reports, Closing Session, Concluding Results and Farewell Party
Sun, 10 July	Departure

Follow Up:

In addition to the special section on the DRC homepage (www.d-r-c.org) which has been reserved for the Summer School project, all information on the DRC Summer School can be found on: <http://www.drcsummerschool.eu>.

(Requested) partners and supporters:

Danube Rectors' Conference (DRC)
BOKU University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
University of Pécs, Faculty of Humanities

Central European Initiative (CEI), Working Community of Danubian Regions, Lower Austria, Upper Austria, Hanns Seidel Foundation, Erste Foundation, Erste Group

